

Your 2022 Impact Report

With your support, we accomplished so much!

80

We helped make independent living possible for 80 families, an increase of 82% from last year.

"I love everything about living on my own and On My Own of Michigan helped me do it."

30

We hosted 30 teens and young adults for overnight independent living experiences through our newest program, Independence Prep.

"Independence Prep was so much fun. I can't wait for the next session!"

We offered 250 skill-building workshops and social activities through our Skill Building Program.

250

We launched enrollment for Independence College, a new two-year residential program welcoming its first class of students in Fall 2023!

873

We provided at least 873 hours of 1:1 support through our Independent Living Program.

Your 2022 Impact Report

Here's how you can continue to support our members this year:

Give a one-time or monthly donation, gift us stock, or remember us in your will.

"I give to On My Own because every dollar I donate makes a tangible difference."

Become a board member and join the leadership team responsible for realizing our long-term vision.

RSVP for our virtual State of OMO Address on January 25th by visiting our website.

Volunteer your time and talents to help our programs thrive.

"I had a blast helping out [as a volunteer]."
